The screenshot shows the Google Meet interface. At the top, a red box highlights the 'People' icon (two people) next to the time '12:42 AM'. Below the time, it says 'Presentation (You)' and 'You' with a profile picture. The main area is dark with a large green arrow icon pointing up and the text 'You're presenting to everyone'. Below this is a green button that says 'Stop presenting'. At the bottom, there is a status bar with the text 'O meet.google.com está compartilhando sua tela.' and two buttons: 'Interromper compartilhamento' and 'Ocultar'.

The screenshot shows the 'People' sidebar in Google Meet. It has a title 'People (2)' and a 'Chat' button. Below the title is a red box containing two entries: 'Renata Gomes (You)' with a profile picture and a green status indicator, and 'Renata Gomes (Your Presentat...)' with a presentation icon and a red status indicator.
